

A Balance of Truth about Signs and Wonders

1. God has not chosen to manifest signs and wonders in the same way through His servants.
2. Signs and wonders are connected to Moses' life and ministry more than any other person in the Old Testament.
3. Moses told Israel that God would raise up a prophet like him.
4. Jesus is the one who fulfilled the prophecy of Moses.
5. Signs and wonders were connected to the ministry of Christ.
6. Signs and wonders were connected to the ministry of the apostles and those working with them.
7. God warned about focusing on signs and wonders.
8. Signs and wonders do not assure faith in God.

Conclusion:

1. Focus on knowing and loving God.
2. Focus on Jesus and the Word.
3. Believe God can do anything.
4. Engage in Spirit-led prayer.
5. Be cautious when the focus shifts from Christ's and the Word of God to signs and wonders.
